May 2015

The International Travel Writers Alliance

The Alliance Syndication Network

The International Travel Writers Alliance : the Alliance Syndication Network

The Alliance Syndication Network enables Alliance journalists to syndicate their features (or links to these features) through the other members in the Network.

By working together in this way, Syndication Network journalists can achieve a far higher circulation for their features.

It will also increase the willingness of travel industry representatives to work with Syndication Network journalists, knowing they will be able to 'deliver' a far greater potential readership reach.

Syndication membership

Although any Alliance member can join the Syndication Network, it is likely to be of greatest benefit to those members who have - or produce features for - online travel magazines, newsletters or blogs, including audio and visual content.

The Alliance Syndication Network Directory

This Syndication Network directory lists those Alliance journalists who are looking to work with other Syndicate members - and their publications.

The directory will be updated on a regular basis and archived at www.itwalliance.com.

The networking approach

Whenever a Syndication Network member produces a travel feature they are welcome to ask other Syndicate members to publish information on the feature and a link to it.

There will always be an understanding that Syndication Network members will only make contact, with other members, when there is genuine synergy between the two.

It is then for Syndication Network members to determine how best to work together.

Joining the Alliance Syndication Network

Alliance members wishing to join the Alliance Syndication Network email Ashley@itwalliance.com with :

- the name of your online publication
- a brief description of it
- the circulation or reach (if known)
- the link to it, and
- the best email for other ASN members to contact you on.
